

Artist of the Week

This week we have a creation by Patsy Newman of Belmont Michigan. Patsy is no beginner to beading but has really been concentrating on harder projects like this one for the past few years. Patsy has been working on this project for about 5 weeks. The Swarovski Crystal Flames are removable. This project is made with Delica beads. The pattern is available from T&T Trading, Inc.

Great Job Patsy

